STARS & BARS

1943

Between 29 June and 14 August, the official national insignia incorporated white sidebars and an overall red surrounding outline and blue surrounding the star.

P/N 09-432--

STYLE 4A

1917, 1921-1941

Introduced prior to the American entry into World War I and officially adopted after the war.

P/N 09-436--

1943-1947

The red surround of the official insignia was quickly changed to a blue surround During its 4 years use this insignia appeared on more aircraft than all its predecessors combined.

P/N 09-433--

STYLE 6A

1942-1943

Some aircraft in the European theater incorporated a yellow surround in British style.

P/N 09-439--

1947-Present

With the reorganization of the Defense Department and the creation of the USAF, red bars were added to the official national insignia. A variation of this insignia appears officially without the blue surround on F-15 aircraft.
